Library Introduction

Librarians & Research Help

Faculty librarians at Archer Library are available to meet with doctoral students to discuss research strategies and provide search assistance.

Schedule a Research Appointment

Meet with a librarian in-person or online. We can also schedule Teams appointments.

- Email us at library@ashland.edu,
- Chat with us online on the library website,
- Complete the help form for an appointment,
- Visit Archer Library during reference hours.

During the fall & spring term, librarians are available Monday through Thursday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Friday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Summer hours are Monday through Friday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Hours & updates are available on the library website.

Databases & Inter-library Loan

Library databases provide access to an extensive collection of research resources. We also offer free inter-library loan services if full text is not available. Log with your AU credentials and complete the form; articles are delivered directly to your AU email account.

Did you know? It is possible to request literature reviews from theses and dissertations using ILL.

Literature Reviews

The start of your literature review is the best time to meet with a librarian. Why? Librarians can help you structure a search, suggest Boolean strategies, use search limiters and truncate search terms, and provide tips for managing your search.
